

Cotes of Many Colors

While working on a 3D ARF project, I had to strip and rebuild the belly pan. Before I touched anything, I wanted to be sure I could cover it with the same material that came with it. Most ARFs advertise Hangar 9's UltraCote. This is actually Oracover, a material created and used extensively in the UK.

Most of the Hangar 9 and Seagull Models will list the colors used in the kit. My Phoenix Models Funstar 3D did not, but it was easy to figure out. After some digging on the web, I ran across a cross-reference for UltraCote and Oracover. I copied and cleaned up the document and post it here for all to use.
